RELIABLE TESTIMONY.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 6, 1882.
Hop Bitters Co.
I am 74 years old, have lived 34 years in Philadelphia, and well known among Germans. I have been troubled 12 years with a white swelling on my right foot, and getting worse every year, and very painful, and breaking out in hot weather. I consulted several doctors and they told me it was incurable, and that I would have to take it with me to the grave. Some time ago I lost my appetite, was costive, bad headache, and fever, in fact was very sick. I saw in the German Democrat that Hop Bitters was what I needed. I got a bottle, took it one week and was as well as ever, and to my greatest surprise right from the first, my swelling went down gradually and I taking another bottle got entirely well of it. The wife of my neighbor had two such swellings on her legs and three bottles cured her. I think this is a great triumph for your bitters.
JOHN STOLL,
No. 4 Young's Alley, above Willow St.

STIPPSHILL, IND., Nov. 13, 1881.
DEAR SIRS—I have read so much about Hop Bitters and always being afflicted with neuralgia, weakness, diseased stomach, never having much health I tried a couple bottles; it has strengthened and helped me more than any medicine or doctor. I am now on my third bottle and am thankful that it has helped me. I will advise all that are afflicted to give it a trial.
LUCY VAIL.

BEAT THE WORLD.
ROCKVILLE, CONN., March 6, 1882.
Hop Bitters Co.
I have been taking your Hop Bitters for several weeks, and they beat the world.
L. S. LEWIS, Lewis' axles machine.

LEETONIA, PA., April 13, 1882.
Hop Bitters Co.
I have not been well for three years, tried almost every kind of patent medicines and no less than seven doctors, one of Elmira, N. Y., none have done me any good. I finally tried your Hop Bitters and found them just the thing. I have praised them so highly there is a great number here who use them with great benefit and satisfaction.
Very Respectfully yours, R. HUNT.

GENTLEMEN—The "Hop Bitters" meet with large sales and give general satisfaction, one case in particular you should know of. Mr. John B. Greene, 728 Spring Garden St., Phila., Pa., has been suffering from kidney affection, which superinduced rheumatism. He tried physicians and remedies in vain. He was obliged to take morphine to induce sleep; his trouble was so great. Reading your advertisement in the "Christian at Work," he was prevailed upon by one of his daughters to try it. Three bottles effected a cure, and now he is an enthusiast for "Hop Bitters." He is one of the oldest residents in the locality named; and known as a gentleman of unusual probity.
HENRY TOTTEN,
672 North 10th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

OFFICE JELLOWAY HU. A. ASSOCIATION, JELLOWAY, O., Mar. 18, '82.

I have been using your Hop Bitters and find them what you recommend them to be for kidney disease, (viz., superior to all others.)
J. L. HILDEBRAND.

VERTIGO, DIZZINESS AND BLINDNESS.
OFFICE UTICA MORNING HERALD, UTICA, Feb. 18, 1882.
I have been troubled with vertigo since last July, and have suffered greatly every night after any considerable exertion, from dizziness and blindness. I have tried two bottles of Hop Bitters, and since then have been entirely relieved.
Respectfully Yours,
J. J. FLANNIGAN.

Hop Bitters Co. June 15, 1881.
I have been suffering five years past with neuralgia, liver complaint, dyspepsia and kidney complaint, and I have doctored with fourteen different doctors who did me no good. At last I tried Hop Bitters, and after I used a few bottles I received a great benefit from them, and if I had used Hop Bitters regularly I would have been well before. I know them to be the best medicine in the world for nervous diseases of all kinds.
JAMES COONTS,
Beelington, Barber County, W. Va.

WICKED FOR CLERGYMEN.
"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led into giving testimonials to quack doctors or patent medicines, but when a really meritorious article composed of valuable remedies known to all, and that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them.
REV. B. R.——, Washington, D. C.

A good Baptist clergyman of Bergen, N. Y., a strong temperance man, suffered with kidney trouble, neuralgia and dizziness almost to blindness, over two years after he was advised that Hop Bitters would cure him, because he was afraid of and prejudiced against the word "bitters." Since his cure he says none need fear but trust in Hop Bitters.
My wife and daughter were made healthy by the use of Hop Bitters and I recommend them to my people.—Methodist Clergyman, Mexico, N. Y.
I had severe attacks of Gravel and Kidney trouble; was unable to get any medicine or doctor to cure me until I used Hop Bitters, and they cured me in a short time.—A distinguished lawyer and temperance orator of Wayne County, N. Y.

There are in Alabama fifteen hundred colored school teachers, and their recent convention at Montgomery was a very creditable affair.

A party of nine United States engineers are now in Lynn harbor making a survey of the flats and the work accomplished by Gen. Thom. After becoming conversant with the survey, it will be compared with that made by Roskie in 1866, to see what changes in the contour of the harbor, if any, have been made since that survey was made.

A little girl of seven years died in New York on Friday from the effects of skipping rope. On Wednesday evening she told her mother that she had jumped the rope 200 times, and her head ached. The doctor said she died of comma and congestion of the brain. She was not a strong child.

The New orleans and Northeastern Railroad Company are now constructing a trestle work across Lake Pontchartrain, which when completed will be 21½ miles in length. The structure will probably be the longest of the kind in the United States. The number of piles that will be required is 32,644, and the quantity of other lumber over 15,000,000 feet.

A company has been formed at Moncton, N. B., for the purpose of establishing a great cattle ranche. It is to have a capital of $25,000, and it is the intention of the company to rent or purchase from the Provincial Government sixteen square miles of unimproved land and also to lease or buy partly improved land and farm it on the best known principle.

Mr. J. O. Poor, of Franklin, N. H., eats from a solid curled maple table, which is over 150 years old. It was once owned by a Mr. Quint, of Portsmouth, who fought in the Bon Homme Richard under the command of the world-famous Paul Jones. The table was carried on the back of a horse from Portsmouth to Oxford, where it fell into the hands of relatives of Mr. Poor.

Mrs. Mary Balarina, the wife of Louis Balarina, is dying in the hospital in Nashville, Tennessee. Last Saturday night she poured kerosene oil over her clothing, igniting it, and stood up on the floor, regarding the progress of the flames in the most nonchalant manner. She resisted any approach to her till she was burned from head to foot. Although suffering acute pain, she bears it without complaining. She became insane two months ago, after the death of her little child, and this was the third attempt at suicide.

Negotiations for the consolidation of the electric motor patents of Edison and Stephen D. Field resulted on Saturday in the signing of contracts by both parties which put an end to the fight and gave the patents into the control of a new company. On the basis of the use of both sets of patents, a company is to be formed with a capital of $3,000,000, for the purpose of operating electric railroads in the United States. This basis was decided upon after the value of the patent had been placed at the sum named by a committee of estimate appointed for the purpose, whose Chairman was Prof. George F. Barker, of the University of Pennsylvania. The company will ... organized probably during the week, ...

Rev. George F. Moore, of Putnam, Ohio, who has been chosen to fill the chair of Hebrew, Arabic and cognate languages at Andover Theological Seminary, is a remarkable linguist, and so also is his wife, who is one of two or three ladies in the United States who can speak Arabic. She passed many years in Syria and other countries, acquiring a practical knowledge of various tongues. Both Mr. and Mrs. Moore write and speak French, German, Italian and Arabic, while the former's studies have extended to Coptic, Ethiopian and many other Oriental languages.

According to a Montreal paper, Mr. Lawson, engineer of the Saskatchewan Mining Company, while examining the company's coal areas discovered the remains of an ancient forest at a depth of over two hundred feet from the top of the ravine. The stumps are plainly visible, and are about two feet in hight, and look very much as though the forest had been laid low by the woodman. In addition to this interesting discovery, the fossil remains of a gigantic reptile were found under the coal in a stratum of light sandstone. The skeleton is over thirty feet in length, and is partially exposed, the remainder being firmly imbedded in the earthy matter.

A young lady in Chicago has some very practical ideas about missionary work. She is a student in the Female Baptist Missionary Training School and is not yet twenty years of age. It has been her practice for the past few months to visit the sick and destitute in the lowest and vilest slums of Chicago, entirely alone, at all hours of the day. The little figure dressed modestly in black is known and respected by the criminal classes of the city, and in all her errands of mercy she has never once been molested or even insulted. She says that her object is first of all to do some practical good and next to fit herself by actual experience for her life-work as a missionary. Wiser people than this young girl have gone through life without getting as near the ideal of Christianity.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Elm street Universalist society, Lewiston, made a strike, Sunday, to reduce their church debt, which amounts to about $8,900. At the morning service, Rev. Mr. Hayden, of Portland, after preaching a forcible sermon on "giving," stopped from the pulpit and gave the meeting into the hands of the president of the parish, Mr. Nathan W. Harris. Mr. Harris made remarks concerning the standing of the finances of the church, and appealed for subscription bids. The congregation quickly responded, and opened wide their pocket books. It was not long before between $6,000 and $7,000 were pledged.

Al Perley Fickett, who was accidentally shot by his partner, and killed, was born at Cape Elizabeth. One lady, a widow upwards of seventy-two years of age, has averaged for the past three years over seventy-five dollars worth of spinning and knitting for her a year, besides doing quite a large lot of weaving for other parties. The knitting is mostly of mittens, double work, in plain and fancy colors.

Twice she was knocked over and two rings on her finger were broken.

James Keegan, of Augusta, has just sold a span of fine bay horses to Mr. O. H. Brown, of Fitchburg, Massachusetts, and the price was $2,000. The horses were sired by Sanford Knox, now owned by John O. Haynes, of Skowhegan. Mr. Keegan took six more horses on the boat to Boston, Monday.

A SCANDALOUS APPOINTMENT.

Although we reported, in our yesterday morning's issue, the full proceedings in the two branches of the City Government up to the previous midnight, the majority of our citizens will first learn this morning that one of the political bargains of the late municipal election was stealthily carried out by the Mayor, after twelve o'clock Tuesday night, by a trick through which, in the absence of two Republican Aldermen, he obtained the confirmation of the scandalous appointment of the notorious Democratic ward striker known as "Bill King," to the office of City Liquor Agent, in place of the faithful soldier and respected citizen, Edward Jordan, who has performed the duties of that responsible position in a most competent and satisfactory manner.

Ever since the election there have been hints and boastings that Mr. Bass's henchman, King, would "bounce" City Agent Jordan, but the very suggestion was so grotesquely shameful, that few people believed any man in the Mayoralty of Bangor would stoop to entertain it. It was well known by the public and the Mayor that four members of the Board of Aldermen could never be induced to approve such an abuse of the appointing power, so he seems to have watched for an opportunity to take advantage of the absence of two Republican members, by rushing the scheme through, in the dead hours of the night, by the aid of his three Democratic allies.

During the session Tuesday night, or after it had extended into Wednesday morning, our reporter at 12:15 A. M., asked the Mayor if he had made any nominations and he replied that he had not. It was after that hour, therefore, when our Chief Magistrate, availing himself of the absence of Aldermen Adams and Collamore—one of them out of the city and the other detained at home by illness—fulfilled the boastings of this King and his fellows by getting him thrust into Mr. Jordan's place by a vote of three to two, Aldermen Jewell and Bean being voted down by the three Democrats, Tobin, Simpson and Councer.

A more disgraceful abasement of the public service by partisan trickery could hardly be conceived, and it would be difficult for the Mayor to find in the city a more thoroughly unfit person to put in charge of the liquor agency. That office, of all others, should be confided to a trustworthy and judicious person, in whom the community can have confidence. Unless we greatly mistake the Mayor will learn by the indignant protests of our citizens, that the midnight darkness which he sought for the deed will not shield it from public condemnation.

"TARIFF REFORM DOWN EAST."

[Boston Journal.]

Under the caption "Tariff Reform Down East," the Charleston, S. C., News says:

Two things we are glad to hear from New England: 1. Ben Butler's candidacy for President is regarded on all hands as a sorry joke. 2. The Democratic press of New England is substantially solid for a sweeping reform of the tariff. The Portland Argus, Lewiston Gazette, Bangor Commercial, Manchester Union, Laconia Democrat, Concord Patriot, Fall River Herald, Lowell Times, New Haven Register and Montpelier Argus, are all opposed to the straddle-the-fence policy and do not hesitate to say so without mincing their words. The Hartford Times is the only Democratic paper in New England that is willing to swallow Sam Randall and his protection juggle.

As regards Governor Butler's candidacy we have nothing to say, but we will venture the suggestion that the Democratic press of New England, if it advocates a tariff for revenue only, does not represent the views of hundreds of Democrats, who, as manufacturers, have more influence than the Democratic editors. At the time the knit goods industry was attacked last summer, pending the restoration of a part of the duty, a representative of the Journal had occasion to visit the thriving town of Laconia, N. H., where several knit goods enterprises are owned and managed by prominent Democrats.

While in the office of one of these gentlemen, a Democratic editor appeared and took a part in the conversation, which related to the tariff on knit goods. "You did not manage this matter wisely," said the editor; "you should have demanded the repeal of the duty on raw wools, and having got that you would not have needed the additional duty on your goods." The enterprising Democratic manufacturer retorted: "Do you think that there has been a Congress for years that would take the duty off of wool? No; no votes could be got for such a proposition; and if I were in Congress myself I should vote against it, because I am fully persuaded that while the duty on wool may not be fairly adjusted, the protection of that interest is advantageous to manufacturers. We might thrive two years with free wool, but in the end the wool-growing interest in this country would suffer, and then the prices would be controlled to our disadvantage. I am a full believer in protection." This incident illustrates the difference of opinion that probably exists between the Democratic editor who is yet infected with the old Bourbon hostility to manufacturing enterprises which was so generally entertained by the rural Democracy in New England fifty years ago, and the enterprising Democratic manufacturer who, for some reason which it would be difficult for him to give, clings to an organization which, if it dared, would ruin his business by hostile legislation.

At the time of the city election the Commercial paraded the fact that Mayor Cummings had been in the army, and boasted that lots of the soldiers are going to vote for him. The comrades of Edward Jordan, who thought enough of him to place him at the head of the Quartermaster's Department of the Grand Army of the Republic of Maine, will undoubtedly know how to appreciate the sort of regard for the soldiers that has been manifested by Mayor Cummings in trickily turning City Agent Jordan out of his office to make room for Mr. William King!

"Reform is needed!" proclaimed Samuel J. Tilden in the intervals of rest from his labors in sending out those famous "cipher despatches." We suppose Mr. William King has been appointed to Reform the City Agency.

In the recent municipal election in Atlanta, Ga., the cow was the issue, the question being whether or not cows shall be allowed to run at large in that city. The result was in favor of free cows.

BANQUET TO DR. NORVIN GREEN.

A complimentary banquet was given, Friday night, to Dr. Norvin Green, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, by John Pender, Member of Parliament, at the Ship Hotel, Greenwich. There was a large number of guests present, prominent among whom were Sir Hussey Vivian, Sir Sydney Waterlow, Professor Rogers, George Armitstead, Sir George Elliot, William Cartwright, Sir Evelyn Ashley and John Puleston, Members of Parliament; Admiral Sir Sydney Keppel, Messrs. W. S. Conard, Barber, Pender, Fuller, Wells, Weaver, Ford, and J. Green, son of Dr. Green, Count Lambertye and MM. Pouyer, Quertier and Leon Riant. The menu was excellent and was generally appreciated by the whole company.

Mr. Pender, in proposing the health of Dr. Green as the toast of the evening, apologized on account of illness for the absentees, referring to Lords Monck and Tweeddale and James Anderson. Continuing, he said in part: The position of Dr. Green is one of the most arduous and responsible in America. He fulfils the duties of his position with the greatest credit and ability, and I can tell you such a position requires a man of vast ability and unimpeachable honor. I think it always well on occasions like the present to justify the man by the statistics. Dr. Green presides over a company with $80,000,000 of capital, 13,000 stations and 20,000 employes. The company owns 150,000 miles of poles and 425,000 miles of wire. During my visit in America and Canada I found no part or district without a Western Union station. The car in which I travelled was stopped on one occasion by a small white flag, and a telegraphic message was handed me conveying the news of the Tel-el Kebir victory. I replied congratulating Sir Garnet Wolseley, and I was afterward told by him that before sunset of the same day he had the answer. [Applause.]

The progress of the Western Union Telegraph Company has been most astonishing. In 1866 there were 75,000 miles of wire and 2,250 employes. The profits were over $2,500,000; they are now over $8,000,000. The company pays a dividend of 7½ per cent. The actual profits would warrant 12 per cent., but the difference is applied to the reserve. Statesmen have not yet realized the importance of telegraphy. Its object and mission are peace and unity, and it has done more in this direction than any political or social efforts have accomplished. We are at present as much masters of the submarine cables as of the railways. The cable to the Cape, I am sorry to say, was broken again this morning, but I am confident that it will be repaired in a day or two. The Colonial Office requires from the Western Union Telegraph Company magnificent service, which is not to be compared with any other in the world; and when I think of the pleasant two months that I spent in America and of the vast multitude pouring into the country, to increase the producing and consuming power, I know what the United States will be.

Dr. Green, in replying said: I had an idea that on coming to this vast metropolis a person lost his individuality, but I suppose from my being selected for such distinctions that I am the exception which proves the rule. I notice that you are advancing and improving in sciences after us. It is said that the sun never sets on British soil—but it takes nine hours for it to rise on our telegraph system. We claim to do the sharpest telegraphing work. I have seen, in New York, a clerk despatch a commercial message from the Produce Exchange to Chicago and receive an answer while waiting at the counter. [Applause.] The business from New York to London would be doubled if we could, as in the case of Chicago, receive an answer as soon. And just as telegraphy can overcome time and space, so it will advance. Dr. Green concluded with expressing thanks for the great honor done him.

Mr. John G. Foster, recently appointed Minister to Spain, will leave for Madrid on the 8th prox. His residence in Washington has been leased by Postmaster General Gresham.

The decision of United States Commissioner Ryan, releasing Kate Kane, of Milwaukee, the female lawyer, on habeas corpus proceedings, because Judge Wallery, of the Criminal Court, committed her verbally for contempt in throwing water in his face, was reversed by Judge Hamilton, of the Circuit Court, who reviewed the case on a writ of certiorari and she was remanded to jail. Bail was offered, but Judge Hamilton decided that the case was not bailable. The prisoner says she will never pay the fine if she stays in jail all her life.

Ex-Senator McDonald's Presidential boom has got far enough along, his admirers imagine, to make it safe to pick put his Cabinet. The gossip in Indianapolis according to a Cincinnati Commercial Gazette correspondent, arranges it thus: "Secretary of State, Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana; Secretary of War, W. S. Rosecrans, of California; Postmaster-General, John G. Gordon, of Georgia; Attorney-General, E. W. Vilas, of Wisconsin; Secretary of Navy, William H. Eaton, of Connecticut; Secretary of the Interior, George H. Breckinridge, of Arkansas." It is added that the only probable change in this programme is the substitution of Carter Harrison for General Rosecrans as Secretary of War, as the former has "shown extraordinary skill in throwing bombs."

It strikes us, says the Tribune, that just at this moment Mr. James Baggs, who presided over a New Jersey Council of Invincibles on Sunday, appears at a slight disadvantage. Mr. Baggs is what is called in the current phrase of Irish politics a "dynamiter." He is reported to have said on Sunday that if he were in Ireland he would be proud to be standing in the dock with the Dublin prisoners. It was a very courageous thing for Mr. Baggs to say, and were not for Mr. William Kelly we should feel like congratulating James Baggs on having said it. But Mr. William Kelley thereupon remarked that if Baggs would go he would pay his passage. And now it somehow seems to us as if what the lawyers call the "burden of proof" was on Baggs.

The extent of the injury to the winter wheat crop of the country by the severe winter has clearly been exaggerated. Later reports from all parts of the winter wheat belt are more cheering. It is probable that the first reports in the spring discounted to the damage of the future crop the cold, wet and late spring, which there was every reason to expect after the heavy rains of last winter. Instead of this, the season has opened early, with bright and warm growing weather. Throughout Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri—the section from which most of the early gloomy reports came—the advance of the spring has brought notable improvement, though there will be some deficiency in those States. In the more northern belt, however, where the snow lay on the ground all winter and protected the grain, the condition of wheat is said to be particularly favorable, with an increased acreage. The late rains in California have removed the anticipations of a shortage there also. Generally the wheat outlook is better than usual at this early season. The promise of the spring is, at the same time, unusually good for spring wheat. If it is fulfilled without unusual discount, it is not unreasonable to expect a crop in 1883 at least as large as that of 1882. It is somewhat early to count upon the agricultural prospect in foreign countries, but such reports as are received indicate a considerable deficiency in Western Europe, which may or may not be supplied by Russia and Hungary.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

It is stated that proceedings are about to be begun by the authorities of the District of Columbia against the Washington Gas Light Company for not lighting the city according to contract. The provisions of the act of 1874 inflict a penalty of $100 per day for violation of the stipulations.

The Very Pinks of Courtesy

Many merchants think themselves like Marcus, tio, and in their ads tell how polite they are to everyone. But let the customer be one whose garb is rather the worse for wear, or one from the lowly walks of life or one of some foreign extraction enter their stores, and up will go their nasal protuberances until they would hold water. Now it don't make any difference to us, whether the customer is some humble Celtic female fresh from the "ould sod" and redolent of the wash she has done; or whether it is one of Africa's dusky daughters redolent of the wash she has not done; or whether it is some bashful maiden from the rural districts "larding the lean earth" with hay seed as she walks along; or whether it is some proud patrician dame whose rustling silks are odorous with all the perfumes of Araby. They each and all demand the same courteous treatment, and they get it at our store, whether they buy a shoe string, or a pair of the celebrated or not a cent's worth; that's the kind of Chesterfeldian hair pins we are. Remember that the boots named above must be stamped to be genuine. Gentlemen that wish a shoe large enough to serve as a trunk, will shun the but if they wish a shoe that will stay with them all Summer, they will buy no other make. Remember that though we do not enumerate our whole stock, we have all desirable goods kept by live dealers from "Alpha to Omaha" in the list.

An Open Secret.

The leather the old reliable

BURT BOOTS,

are made from, is not prepared in any subterranean cavern or with any occult ceremony handed down from the dark ages, nor is the factory guarded by a strong body of colored troops; but on the contrary all pertaining to their manufacture, is open and above board. The only difference between them and the cheaper grades of books, is, that they are made from the finest kid tanned in La Belle France, and on anatomical lasts, (patented) which insure the lady that wears them perfect freedom from tortures in fitting them to the feet, which some boots subject them to—second to none chronicled in Foxe's book of martyrs. They are perfectly easy to the feet the first time worn. We have also a boot of exactly the same stock as the Dongolas for only $4 50. A great many people have been puzzled in years past at the probable contents of certain yellow bags displayed in grocers' windows, said to contain sugar cured hams. We can now clear up the mystery. They contain a certain make of shoe sold by a neighbor opposite, which, when shopworn, are eagerly pounced upon by grocers, and from their size and shape they just fill the bill and bag as ham signs. If you seek a shoe whose every curve is a line of beauty and genteelness, try

FLORENCE OIL STOVES.

Nine Points

To be Considered in Purchasing an Oil Stove

1st—Be sure that you buy an Oil Stove that is warranted to burn without odor.

2nd—See that it can be used equally as well for heating in the winter as for cooking in the summer.

3d—See that for cooking it concentrates its entire heat on the article to be cooked, without raising the temperature of the room; thus avoiding the heat in hot summer weather.

4th—Above all things get an Oil Stove that is easily kept clean. This is the most important thing of all.

5th—Beware of all Oil Stoves having perforated wire gauze cages or boxes over the oil tank, which have to be boiled out, and which are impossible to keep clean and are fit only for out door use.

6th—Do not buy a heavy, clumsy Oil Stove, for you might want to move it into another room when there is no one at hand to assist you.

7th—If you wish to use your stove in the wind, get one with the Patent Adjustable Wind Damper.

8th—Do not buy any Oil Stove without the Patent Filler, showing exactly how much oil to put in the stove without spilling the oil; also showing when the stove is empty.

9th—Examine the Florence first, and recollect that it has all the points of excellence necessary in an Oil Stove; it has been in the market nine years, thoroughly tried and tested, and pronounced the OLDEST AND BEST.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General News.

Cabinet Meeting—Civil Service Regulations.

WASHINGTON May 2. A special meeting of the Cabinet was held to day to consider the civil service regulations now awaiting the President's action All the members were present, except the Attorney General who is temporarily confined to his home by a bad cold The session lasted about two and a half hours. The regulations as prepared by the Civil Service Commission were agreed upon with out substantial change, although it was decided advisable to change the mode of expression of certain rules The Commission had a conference with the President before the Cabinet met. The President will approve the regulations as soon as they shall have been altered to meet the above indicated views of the Cabinet

Another Despatch

There was one question in connection with the rules which the Cabinet found it difficult to decide and which in fact is still undetermined The custom which is now observed in making appointments in the several Executive departments and which in the Treasury, has the force of law is to distribute them among the States and Territories upon the base of population It is questioned whether a strict adherence to this rule would not in many cases hamper the administration of the civil service and a majority of the ministers of the Cabinet incline to the view that appointments under the new civil service should be made strictly on merit, determined by competitive examinations, regardless of the residence of successful candidates A decision, however, has not been reached by the Cabinet

Dormen B Eaton said this evening that one of the clauses of the new civil service law provides that appointments shall be distributed among States and Territories in proportion to population as far as practicable, but that as this clause comes with several others under a common head of provisions which are to be carried out only as far as the good administration of law will permit, he did not think it would prove a source of much difficulty

He had not been advised of the action of the Cabinet in this regard, but the terms of law he thought would be complied with by making the appointments during a given period of a year or two years approximate the quotas allowed to States and Territories according to population He said further that it should be borne in mind that the law had nothing to say with regard to the proportion in which the several States and Territories are represented in the appointments already made and that the present representation of States and Territories would not be taken into consideration in determining future appointments, as the laws refer solely to appointments hereafter to be made; also that the provision of the law in question relates to appointment and not to examination Of course, examination would be made, he said, with a view of supplying the appointing power with proper material

HOTEL GLENDON'S FIRE BUG.

A Child Twelve Years Old Influenced to Acts of Incendiarism by Seeing a Fire Escape Work

BOSTON, May 2 Hattie Thornton, twelve years old, the girl who resided at Hotel Glendon with her parents and set fire to the hotel on different occasions, was arrested to-day She does not seem to realize the enormity of her acts She said that she had thought of the matter constantly ever since the exhibition of the fire escape. On Sunday she hid a quantity of matches in the drawers beneath the washstand, and on Monday, just before going to school, she set the paper and cloth in them on fire, closing the door of the room behind her. Tuesday she repeated the act just before going to school, and on her return, about 4.15 o'clock, the child went into the kitchen and set the fire underneath the sink. Asked by the officer why she had set the fires the child simply said she did it to see the flames and that she hadn't meant to do any harm. There is no doubt in the minds of those who have seen the child that the thoughts of the fire escape and the people coming down through it, affected her mind and had made her a monomaniac upon the subject of fires and fire escapes.

Governor Butler's Course Denounced in the House.

BOSTON, May 2. In the House to-day there was a warm debate on the bill appropriating $90,000 for the support of the Tewksbury almshouse. Several members contended that to appropriate less than the amount estimated as necessary would be to acknowledge that the Governor's charges were well founded. Mr. Cushing considered the Governor's proposition to furnish money ... the almshouse as an insult to every member of the House, and Mr. Means, of Boston, denounced it in vigorous terms. FOREIGN NEWS.

The Triple Alliance.

PARIS, May 2 M Challemel Lacour, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in his remarks in the Senate last night in answer to the question of Duc De Broglie, as to the Government's position in regard to the triple alliance, said he believed in the sincerity of the declaration of Signor Mancini, the Italian Foreign Minister, and Herr Tisga, the Hungarian Premier, that no idea of agression against France was entertained He believed the alliance would not in any way change the relations of France with the Powers France, he said, must be prudent, for a vanquished country which is regaining its strength and which is condemned to maintain a large defensive force, must not be surprised to find itself exposed to jealousies and distrust.

They demand an increase from $3 50 to $4 per day and the establishment of uniform rates of wages About 500 stone cutters and plasterers are out. The bricklayers will to-morrow demand an increase of 50 cents per day and will probably strike.

The reports that the eastern freight rates continue to be cut by two or three roads at St Louis still circulate and the shipments posted on change indicate pretty plainly that the reports are true.

It would be a great help to the committee if persons willing to subscribe would come forward and sign without solicitation.

Resolutions of Respect

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Merchants' National Bank, president Blake announced the death of Hon Charles Stetson, a member of the Board, and gave expression to his feelings in appropriate remarks. The following was then adopted:

Resolved, That as personal friends of the late Mr. Stetson, we learned with sadness of his death at the time, and now that we are met as a Board of Directors we feel keenly the loss of our always kindly advisor and able associate. We know full well too how great the loss to the bank will be, of his large experience and his ripe judgment. Clear headed, his intelligent opinion was rarely other than law with us.

The shadow of death has passed over us often; ah! too often, and in its darkness we have lost sight of Butman and Smith and Hill, honored names, and of Stickney and Holt, endeared to us by their virtues And now again our eyes are darkened. Another, our late friend and associate we can see no more in his accustomed place.

Resolved, That we hold in the greatest respect the memory of the late Hon. Charles Stetson. Mr. Stetson was honorable in his intercourse with men, upright in his dealings, conservative in his habits, and these traits adorned his life and formed and distinguished his character.

Voted, That the cashier present to the family of the deceased a copy of these resolutions as a testimonial of our ... [illegible]

THE CORPORATION MILLS LEASED.

Messrs Cutler & Eddy and L & F H Strickland to Operate at Veazie this Season

The Great Works Milling and Manufacturing Company, whose mills at Bradley were destroyed by fire, early on the morning of Sunday last, perfected negotiations, yesterday with the Trustees, and have hired the Corporation Mills, at Veazie, for the present season The two firms, Messrs Cutler & Eddy and L & F H Strickland, will operate the mills the same as at Bradley A boom will be hung at Veazie, at once and the logs will be floated down the river from Bradley

The mills are being got in thorough order for work, and sawing will probably commence the first of next week The Corporation Mills have not been operated since 1881 In the spring of last year the machinery was put in readiness and the mill started up on a trial run but was not worked during the season. It is extremely fortunate for the burnt out firms that these mills were idle and could be procured for their purpose

The equipment of the mills embraces 4 gangs 2 mulays and 6 single saws, with clapboard, shingle lathe and stave machines The capacity is not as large as at the destroyed mills, but it is the intention to run both night and day, and so they will doubtless be able to do their full complement of business. Cutler & Eddy and L & F H. Strickland will both take with them their crews from Bradley and will also employ many from Veazie. Mr Darius Eddy, of Cutler & Eddy, arrived on Tuesday night from the headwaters of the Mattawamkeag where he received the news of the disastrous conflagration.

In a few days, after the Corporation Mills get in full operation, the members of the Great Works Milling and Manufacturing Company will come together and decide about rebuilding.

AMUSEMENTS.

Davy Crockett.

There was a large sale of tickets yesterday for to-morrow evening's performance of 'Davy Crockett" by Frank Mayo and company The following is from the St Louis Republican

Mr Frank Mayo opened a season at the People's Theatre last evening with "Davy Crockett" to a full audience, and he cast the spell of his magnetic method over the audience in his good old style. No stage character was nearer nature, in its freshness and simplicity, than Mayo's Davy Crockett. It appeals to the best sentiments and emotions of humanity like a reality, and the illusion is as perfect as the glamour of a dream. The performance was warmly received and heartily enjoyed The drama was well set in scenery and well played by the company.

"WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD' AND MORE VALUABLE THAN GOLD OR JEWELS

Mr LOVELL BULLOCK, of No 37 Westminster street Providence, R I, when called upon a few days since exclaimed 'You please say that it is worth its weight in gold, for I have tested it myself, and know whereof I affirm Mr B says further: 'I had been sick a year or more with general debility and pains and a very lame back, which I supposed was Rheumatism, as I had been afflicted from early childhood at intervals with Inflammatory Rheumatism. About a year ago, when my health began to fail, I paid no special attention to it, and kept about my business as usual, but during the past six months I had run down in health so fast that at times I was unable to get to my business I would start out in the morning in fair condition, and the pains and aches would come upon me so severely that if I was sitting it would be impossible for me to arise without assistance, or if I was standing when the attack came upon me I would be unable to sit down without great suffering from the intense pains, and found that the plasters and liniments which I was using were of no permanent benefit, and I was obliged to leave my business temporarily At this time a member of my family read to me an editorial communication from our leading daily paper of the wonderful restoration to health of a near friend who had been restored from severe sickness and intense suffering of long duration by the use of Hunt's Remedy By the earnest solicitation of this friend I was induced to try Hunt's Remedy, not knowing nor thinking that I had any disease of the Kidneys I commenced to take it according to directions, and before finishing the first bottle I was relieved of the pains in my back, and my general health was much improved I continued the use of the medicine until I was completely cured of all aches and pains, and I cheerfully recommend Hunt's Remedy to all sufferers from Rheumatism and Kidney Diseases'

HORSE THIEVES.

HOW THEY HAVE BEEN WORKING CONNECTICUT TOWNS—A GANG OF BURGLARS FROM NEW YORK ALSO IN THE NUTMEG STATE.

A despatch from Thompsonville, Conn, says —The arrest of a New Britain horse thief in this village has elicited considerable information concerning the ways of such characters in this vicinity It is almost certain that an organized gang of thieves are 'doing' this State and Massachusetts Their operations are, however, often confined to Connecticut because the Bay State laws are more stringent The hills of Berkshire once furnished the safest route by which to remove stolen horses and still hides a good many, but the tide is turning in another direction There is said to be a regular line of horse thief harbors from this place east through the State. The thief knows too much to try to 'scout' a horse direc ly from Hartford, New Haven or Springfield because he would have to follow the telegraph wires and detection would be easy This is why Thompsonville comes in for a jumping-off place It is conveniently situated, on the road east not much travelled, so that if a thief gets a day's start pursuit is generally in vain Even if an officer can travel fast enough to catch up with him capture does not necessarily follow The wily horse thief travels by night resting at a farm-house or some other place which he knows to be safe Hence the advantage of a line of harborers whose aid renders detection almost impos ible

Where this supposed route terminates is not known but there is probably no special pla e If the thief can once get the team on shipboard that settles it in nine cases out of ten But another plan is said to be working unusually well now The thief str kes the New York and New England road at some unimportant station and sends the team by rail without change to New York State A horse-thief is rarely suspected by the inhabitants of the places through wh ch it passes and it was by mere chance that the New Britain man Kibbe was apprehended here He put up his horse at one of the stables, and nobody thought of h s not being 'straight' till he began to o l his carriage This looked as if he was preparing for a long ride, and an investigation showed his wagon to be stocked with food for quite a siege He had a ready said he was from New Britain and it was found by telephoning that place that he had hired the team to go to Manchester

It also beg ns to look as if the news from New York some time ago that a gang of burglars had left that city to work the New England circuit was correct The large number of small burglaries from Hartford to Worcester in the past two weeks certainly looks suspicious, and it is also noticed that the thefts are committed on the same general plan This place being so near the cities and yet large enough to be in would naturally be chosen for headquarters of the gang and circumstance point to that conclusion While several towns on the circuit like Suffolk and Warehouse Point smaller than this have suffered Thompsonville has escaped This is singular at least, and would be the natural course adopted to distract attention Moreover the tramps who have come along during the past week or two have been of a different class from those usually seen here Five were locked up Thursday night and two last night who were well dressed and would never be considered tramps from their general appearance But such an arrangement cannot work long for Connecticut will enforce the almost forgotten tramp law which gives any person wandering about without visible means of support a year of confinement and also allows the officer securing the conviction a reward of $5 When the law was enforced hardly a tramp could be seen here, but now about forty are locked up a month

A SINGULAR CASE

A MOTHER ADVERTISES HER CHILD FOR ADOPTION AND AFTER GIVING HER UP, RECOVERS HER AGAIN WITH DIFFICULTY

Annie Taylor the six year old daughter of Joseph P Taylor of New York who was taken from her home Thursday last, was Monday restored to her parents The circumstances under which she left her home and her subsequent recovery are peculiar and reveal a species of child trade carried on to a great extent in this city The parents of the child are very poor and live in one room in the rear of the house known as Kelly's flats at the above number Mrs Taylor who is an intelligent woman has often wished for some opportunity to so place her child that she could obtain good education, and recently she decided her to make up her mind to have the child adopted Thursday last she inserted the following advertisement to be inserted in a morning paper

418 West 36th St —A beautiful dark complexioned little girl, six years old, to be adopted by a gentleman and lady

In answer to this advertisement a well dressed woman who is described as tall with light hair and blue eyes called Thursday about noon and said she represented a wealthy gentleman named Blakeman who wished a child to adopt in place of a grandchild who had recently died Her story impressed Mrs Taylor as being true and after some further conversation permitted such a transaction Mrs Taylor's lowed her to take the child away

When the child had gone her mother remembered that she had not obtained the name or the address of the woman nor that of the parties to whom she was to take the child Then she realized that there was a probability that she would never again see her and she became nearly frantic with grief

When her husband returned from his daily labor Mrs Taylor told him the state of affairs, and he at once caused an advertisement to be sent to the newspaper in which the offer of adoption had been made, setting forth the fact that Mrs Taylor desired the return of her child

Saturday afternoon a stout elderly woman entered the Taylor apartment, and told Mrs Tayler that she was a Mrs Post but for thirty years she had been in the business and that whenever she advertised for adoption a dark complected child, a woman who answered to the description of the person who had taken Annie Taylor away had called and tried to buy the child She had called so often on Mrs Post—who by the way is known to the police as Granny—that the last time she called Mrs Post told her she would have her arrested the next time she called She then left and an assistant of Mrs Post's, who followed her saw her enter the office of a lawyer named Day on Broadway Mrs Post further said that the woman wished the child of dark complexion, as she intended to send it to Cuba

Mr Taylor searched for such a lawyer, and in the city directory found many lawyers named Day, but as their offices were closed he could not ascertain their connection, if they had any, with the woman so named by Mrs. Post

Monday a young man entered the Kelly Flats and asked for Mrs. Taylor, He was directed to her room, where he found her in most abject grief He told her to cheer up, and said "Mrs. Taylor, if you will not mention my name to any person I will tell you where your little girl can be found' Mrs Taylor gladly promised that his name should not be used and bade him tell her quickly, as she longed to again see her child. Her caller then said "I live on Union Hill above Weehawken My sister goes to the Normal College in this city. When she was returning home on the ferry boat, Thursday, she sat next to a little girl, whose appearance took her eye, and she turned to her and said, 'What is your name?' to which the little girl replied 'My name is Annie Tailor' The woman who was with the child said 'Oh, yes, that's her name now, but I'm going to give her another name She'll soon be called Lizzie Day' My sister then read a newspaper that she had, and forgot the circumstances until she read an account of Annie's having been taken away, when she told me that she had seen the child and recognized the woman who had her as being a Mrs. Day who lives near No 4 Shaft, on Union Hill"

The young man then offered to conduct Mr. and Mrs Taylor to the place. As they neared the house in which the young man said the child was, the door was opened and a man, supposed to be Mr. Day, appeared leading the child by the hand. Mr. Taylor dashed forward and caught up the child and immediately turned away from the house. The man followed them and asked who had told them the child was in his house. He abused the parents shamefully, threatening them with arrest, and accompanied them across the ferry and to their home. There he again threatened them with arrest if they gave the facts to the newspapers, and finally caused Mrs Taylor and one of her friends, named Mary Jane Quigley, to sign a paper which he drew up, in which he set forth that he had voluntarily returned the child to its home

This is the story told to a reporter of the World by Mrs. Taylor. Mr Taylor, who was present when the reporter called also said that he was sorry that his wife had signed the paper, as it was his opinion that the woman intended to send the child away to Cuba

The parents are overjoyed at the recovery of their child, who is a pretty, dark-eyed, black haired little girl of six years. She is very intelligent, and told the reporter that while with Mrs Day she got only bread and tea She said she was not ill-treated, but was glad to be home

RUBBER BELTING.

Important to all who use Belting.

We have just patented a new article in Rubber Belting which is sold under the name of

GIANT BELTING.

This Belting is put with the usual plies of Duck and Rubber, and before putting on the outside cover it is stitched in seams one inch apart, with cotton cord, which has a pulling strength of fifty pounds It is then stretched in its plastic state drawing the plies so close together that with the strong cord with which it is stitched, material strength is added to the belt, and the stitches are so drawn into the plastic rubber, that they cannot wear off on the outside The outside cover is then put on seamless, so that it cannot open, as is the case of Rubber Belting made in the ordinary way, and the plies being so firmly stitched as well as frictioned together that the belt cannot separate as many belts made in the ordinary way will, after being used for a time, especially when run at great speed or in damp places

We particularly call the attention of all mill owners to this belt as being in the end the cheapest belt they can buy, while the first cost is only about ten per cent. more than belting made in the ordinary way We believe it will wear more than double the length of time For heavy main belts you will find it superior to anything made It is also superior for Endless Belts, as we stitch the splice in such a way that it cannot separate

Try our Giant Belts. We will warrant satisfaction

Swindlers and their Victims—How Careless People Suffer in Health and Pocket

Every streak of sunshine creates a shadow, and behind every truth crouches its corresponding lie Whosoever has not been in some way fooled and robbed by swindlers and their works has had better luck in life than most mortals In fact the best witnesses to the value of a given article are the counterfeits and imitations which seek to share its success without possessing a fraction of its merit Hence it goes without saying that

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS are pursued by a host of miserable and worthless imitators eager to appropriate what they can of the fruits of its victories These leeches commonly take the form of a cheap plaster

Now these harmless and worthless plasters would be detected in a minute if people were careful in reading and remembering names. But most persons merely glance at them understand partially and forget instantly What result? This Desiring to buy BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER their own carelessness enables some storekeeper or druggist who cares more for five or ten cents additional profit than for the sweets of an approving conscience, to roll them up in stead some cheap imitation with a similar name The deceit often works, while the fraudulent plasters never do

Don't permit yourself to be thus victimized for lack of a moment's care BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS have stood the test of science and experience and are the product of both Examine the article and satisfy yourself that the word CAPCINE is cut in it

"IT'S A GOOD THING"

And I Know it," were the Words at M Levi Porter the Celebrated Fashionable Cutter to the Firm of Nathan & Taylor, under the Narragansett House, Providence R I —Shows what an Honest Thing will Do.

"It's a good thing, I know it's a good thing" Such were the words addressed to your reporter when he called at the fashionable establishment of Nathan & Taylor under the Narragansett House, Providence, R. I The speaker was M Leroy Porter, head manager of the tailoring department of this large clothing house as he was cutting his way through a mammoth pile of brocades, Scotch plaids and broadcloths.

"I felt sometimes as if there was a cannon ball resting on my stomach I would have to get up at night, for I was so short of breath You see in the Spring—our busy season—we are at work sixteen hours per day Have short times for meals, and at irregular hours My stomach became very much disordered, and I was all out of health I tried every kind of medicines. The doctors said it was a touch of dyspepsia, I could get nothing to do me permanent good until a friend recommended Dr Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. I know it's a good medicine. It has completely cured me of stomach disorders and indigestion. It seems to be a thorough cleanser of the system from biliousness or anything of that kind I know this for I've tried it I'm in the best of health now, but should I ever have a dyspeptic turn again Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY would be my sou ce of rel of Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY acts upon the digestive organs in a charming manner, regulating their action, strengthening and purifying the whole system."
